

*CE-Five

Look Book

Screenplay by Deb Havens and Brad Havens

debhavens@att.net 616.885.2961

* A UFO event that involves direct communication between aliens and humans

In a cosmic mix-up, aliens mistakenly abduct three children but quickly return them unharmed to their terrified mother.

The aliens wipe the kids' memories. So the rest of the world knows what they don't...

That one Halloween night they were taken... somewhere.

Over the next twenty five years, the siblings split over their beliefs about what happened that night. Each of their lives shows the effects.

Then one desperate alien returns to ask for their help to save his dying planet.

The mood is nostalgic and sad – the kids miss their dad, who died last year...

...with a sense of the almost sinister... lurking... watching... waiting

Halloween Night 1985

Alien visitors gathering samples of Earth life forms...

But not unnoticed...

MAJOR CLARKSON

What have you got?

LIEUTENANT ARCHER

Nobody's got eyes on it yet, Major, but the signal's tracking right at us.

MAJOR CLARKSON

Scramble the birds.

CE-V CARTER FAMILY HALLOWEEN
1992

Chloe, 12, Henry, 10, Michael, 8, and their dog, Barney, climb into their tree house to snack on Halloween candy.

Aliens mistakenly abduct the 3 kids, their tree house, and their dog, Barney.

Mom PANICS...

...but meets her future husband.

OFFICER BRADY

(compassionate)

Have you been drinking this evening, Ma'am?

MARY

I know it sounds crazy.

OFFICER SLATTERLY

Yes, Ma'am, it does. Do you have any proof there was a tree here?

MARY

You mean other than this giant hole?

OFFICER SLATTERLY

We don't know how long that hole's been there, Ma'am.

MARY

(voice rising hysterically)

Well, I do, and I'm telling you my kids are missing, too!

The aliens wipe the kids' memories of what happened that fateful night and quickly return them unharmred...

physically

Emotionally, Henry and Michael grow into VERY DIFFERENT MEN. Chloe still the mediator... but tired of it

HENRY

Aw, come on, he took our life story and turned it into a joke, made millions of dollars off us.

MICHAEL

You had your chance, Henry! You said you didn't want to be involved.

HENRY

You lied about the alien! And you don't care. You don't even believe it happened!

MICHAEL

Guess what, Henry? It's called "storytelling." You don't remember any more than I do. And why you think that alien was friendly, if he ever existed, only your psychiatrist knows for sure. So lighten up!

Mary's special healing family reunion on the 25th anniversary of the Halloween abduction...

Her solution to her kids' pain over the years -- the mockery, the bullying -- has always been generous hugs.

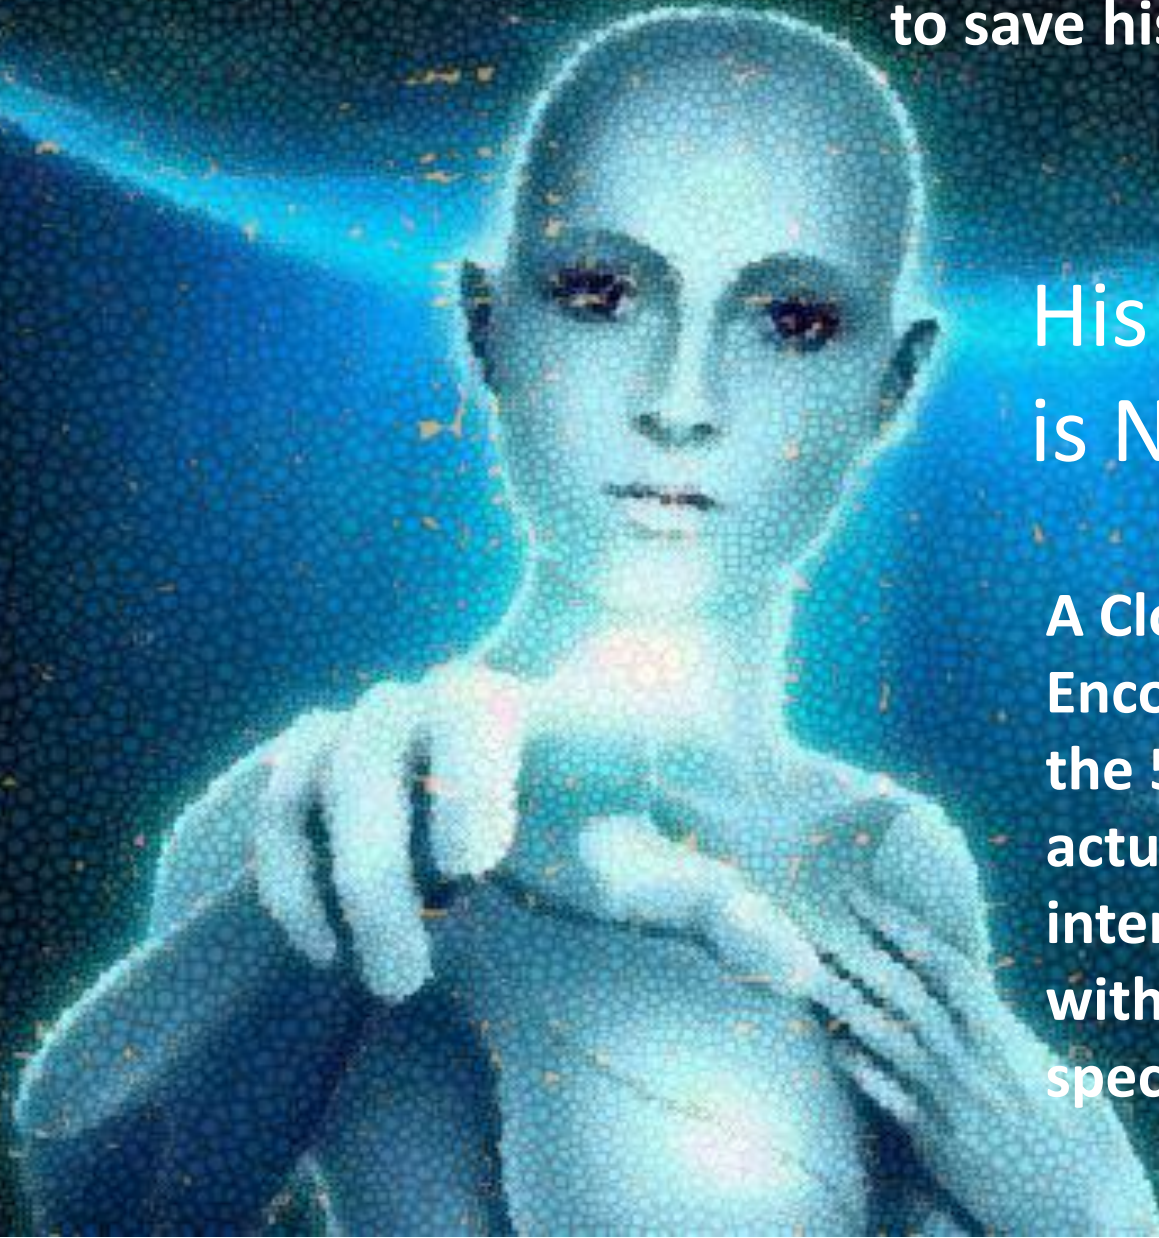

But that hasn't worked for a long time.

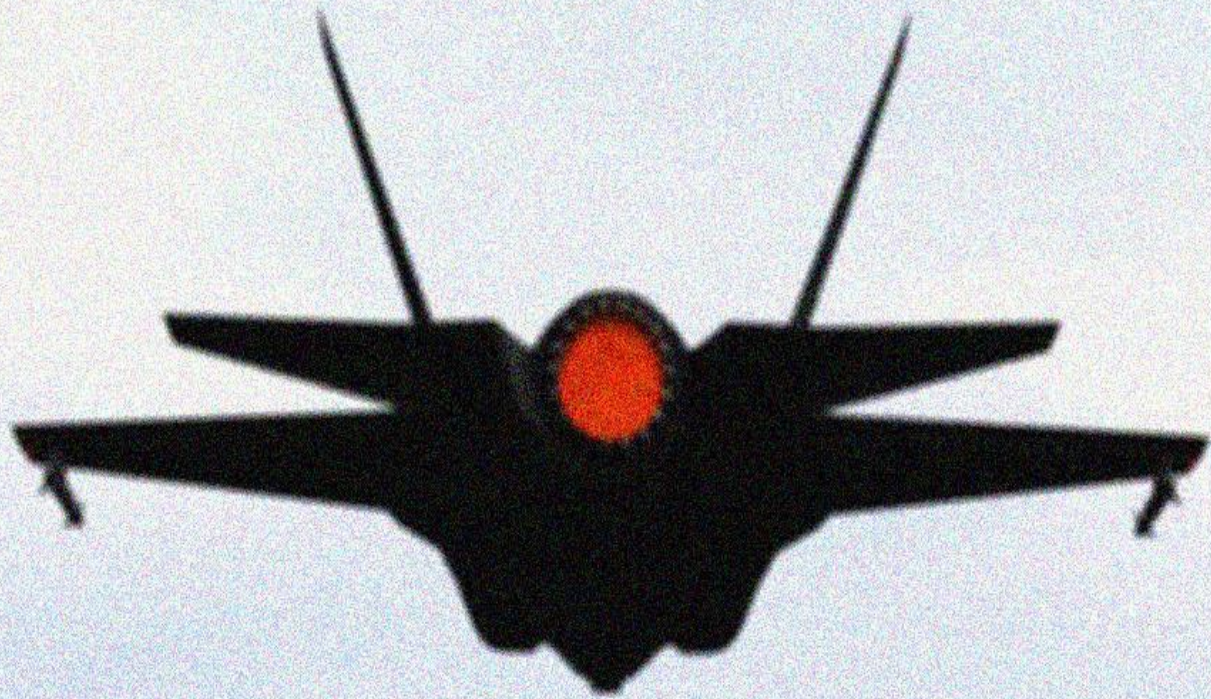

That night, the desperate alien returns to ask for their help to save his dying planet.

His name is NET.

A Close Encounter of the 5th Kind—actual interaction with an alien species.

Meanwhile, the military has found its target.

Henry makes a deal with his superiors...

Help for the alien families dying from a human disease

A FORCED TRADE

For Their Technology!

Henry leads a medical team to the mothership.

But one of his team has a secret agenda

INSIDE THE MOTHERSHIP

Mind-bending Images – Mind-melding experiences

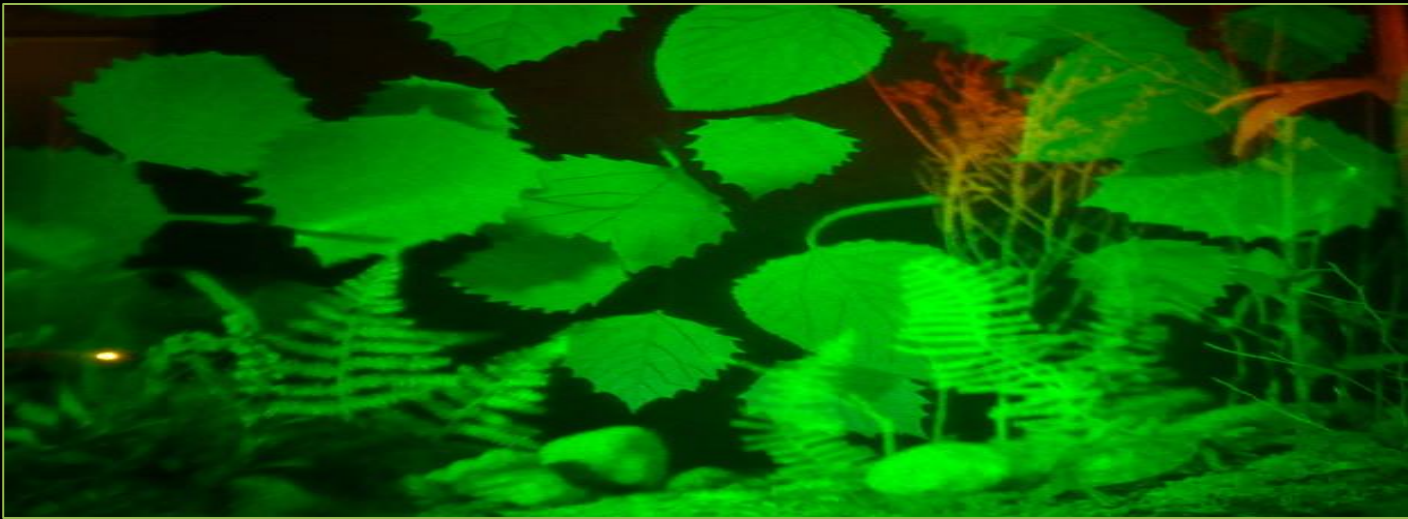

Can they trust NET or is he controlling their minds for his own purpose?

Only Henry's faith is unshaken.

Henry's team discovers NET's people are plant-based.

Alien and human scientists work together to find a cure.

The plague contained, alien and human scientists rejoice.

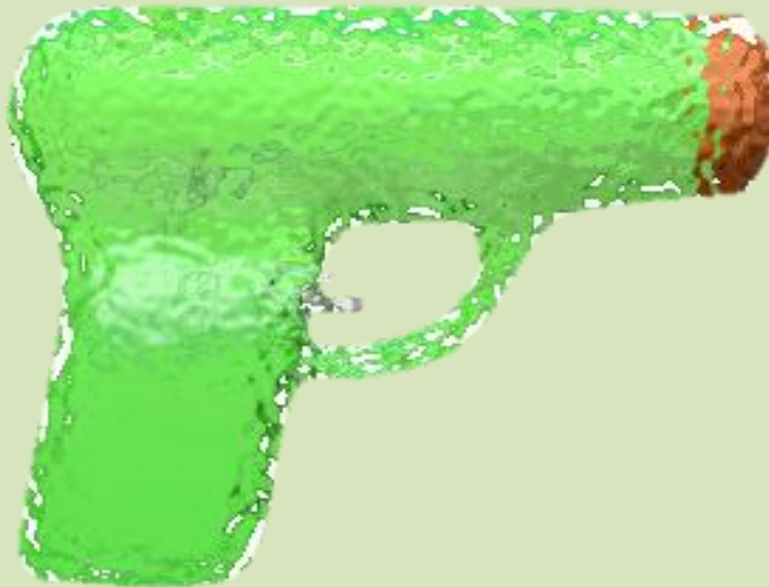

Trust is restored. The mood lightens.

All goes well until alien toddlers runaway to Earth on their own.

Comic mayhem results!

Alien Life Form (ALF) Toddler Toy

The *Visionator

Temporarily duplicates images.

Good practice for developing ESP skills among alien young...but our little runaways get creative!

Just down the street from Mary's house...

Your everyday, average Dog Obedience Class

Until...

ALF TODDLERS
w/A VISIONATOR
+ A BRIGHT IDEA

=

Comic Chaos!

Meanwhile, Police and Military Join Forces to Control the “Invasion.”

HENRY

Uh-oh.

DE LUNA

What's happening?

ARCHER

Well, if I'm Clarkson, I'm setting up a perimeter and looking to contain the invasion.

DE LUNA

But it's not an invasion, this is just -- some kind of misunderstanding.

Archer can't believe her naiveté about the military mindset.

Chloe, Michael and Mom rescue the ALF toddlers. With a van full of little runaways, they try to get home. ROAD BLOCK!

Henry lands a transport pod from the mothership by his mother's garage. The toddlers arrive safe and sound.

Stand down orders in place, the world welcomes the first aliens to officially land on Earth.

- ✓ Officials celebrate first formal alien arrival
- ✓ Chloe, Henry and Michael heroes
- ✓ Family healed

NET herds the little ALFs up the ramp, into the transport pod. The honor guard salutes. The ramps retract. The pod returns to the mothership.

MARY

I hope NET can make it back for Thanksgiving.

WHAT DOES CE-Five
HAVE TO SAY FOR ITSELF?

No two people see the same thing the same way – even if they’ve lived the experience together -- and there are over 7 billion people on this planet.

We can help each other -- and we must -- to save ourselves, no matter what our race ... or our species.

But even better —we can learn to come together with humor and a spirit of adventure.

CE-Five shows us how.

A message for children and adults with a light touch

THE VISUALS

Like the story itself, the images of the aliens are fanciful, even whimsical at times.

But much of the story is anchored in the contemporary life of cities, the suburbs, and the advanced technology of the space age as we know it today.

TONE

CE-Five makes the case that the opposite of love is not hate, it's anger – aimed at the ones you love. The love is always underneath, ready to burst into laughter given the slightest chance... CE-Five is filled with those moments.

LOCATIONS

- A suburban family home anywhere USA
- Chloe's trendy, rehabbed office in Manhattan
- NASA labs and conference space, mission control
- the space shuttle
- NET's space ship

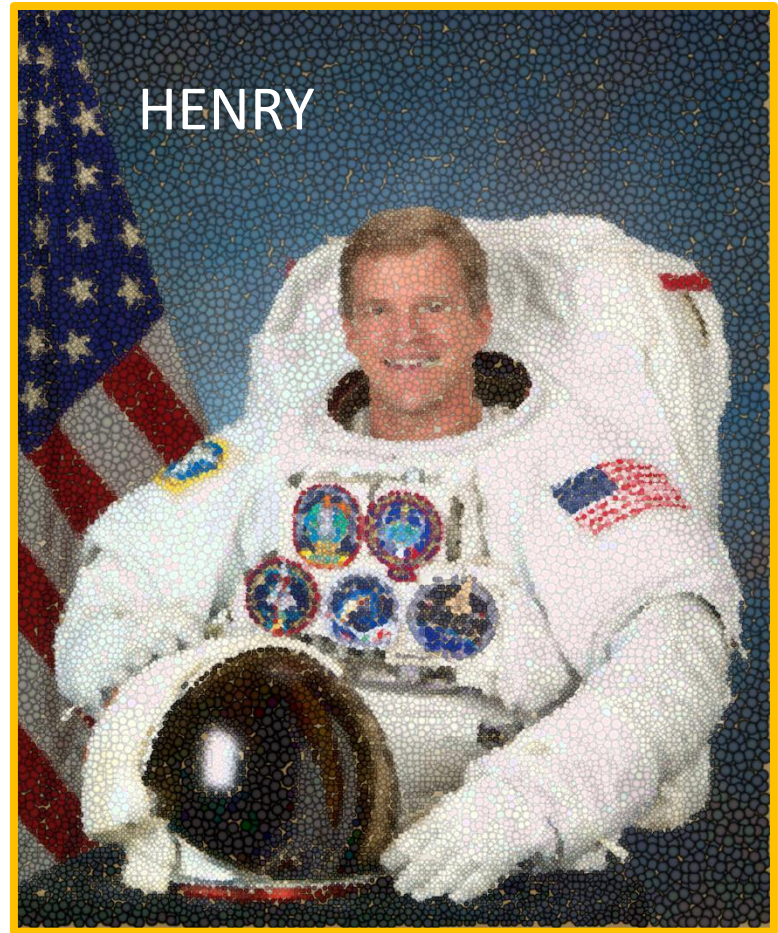

MAIN CHARACTERS

The trauma of the alien abduction affects each of the family in different ways.

Henry was hurt the hardest by the mysteries around the abduction.

Growing up, he is moody, introspective, often a loner.

Now in his mid 30's, Henry has found salvation in his career.

He resents his brother, who questions the reality of the abduction.

CHLOE

Unmarried.

Lives in New York City.

Detached from her family
by distance and by choice.

Ironically aware she sources her own lonely and frustrated life.

At age 37, Chloe is a successful television producer of a UFO Mysteries series for cable TV.

Honest about her own past, the cynical media believe she is lying to promote her series.

*Adores her brothers but can't help them connect.

*Longs for her truth to be honored.

*True love would be a plus.

MICHAEL

wunderkind producer/screenwriter

In his early 30s, Michael has made a fortune off his abduction experience by denying it.

Instead, he's turned the tale into a space opera starring a crazed alien.

- Pissed that Henry disses his success
- Trying to salvage his marriage
- Adores his two young daughters
- Not so sure about his wife

STEP DAD FRANK

MARY

A retired cop .

Frank Brady has done his best by the family and yet...

Henry doesn't trust him... with good reason

Frank is on the payroll to watch Henry in case any aliens show up.

Mary would love nothing more than to see her children happy.

Her special family reunion goes very, very wrong on Halloween.

It's not easy to be part of a family, especially when trauma and mystery haunt you throughout your life.

But all of us make a choice about how we deal with our family members.

CONCLUSION

CE-Five looks at the challenges of family --and has fun with an extended family far beyond a trip to Grandma's house.

Ultimately, the siblings Chloe, Henry and Michael discover that those who forgive, trust and laugh together win the family they can cherish.

FINIS